NARRATIVE:

Kent, a multi-state offender, has an adult criminal history that spans California, Georgia, South Carolina, Louisiana and Florida. His convictions include multiple battery, robbery, inflict corporal injury on spouse, violation of court order to prevent domestic violence, battery on former spouse, burglary, larceny, fraud, petty theft, trespassing, shoplifting, soliciting controlled substances, driving under the influence of alcohol and drugs and violations of parole. Kent, served several terms in state prison, the longest being three (3) years for robbery. Kent was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on March 19th, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Kent qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with prior, is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
